NEHIDTA Training NOTES
April 10, 2009

Please find attached information for our April, May and June classes currently open for registration. "Conspiracy Investigations" has several seats available. Courtroom Testimony has limited seating. All June classes are now open for registration. Registration forms are attached for all classes. As always, all our classes held at NEHIDTA are tuition free and registration free unless otherwise specified. Travel/hotel related expenses are the student's responsibility.

(FYI-For those who have been to NEHIDTA Training Classes in the past- please note-we have moved the Training Room just down the hall from its original location. The move has made our room more comfortable and user friendly with additional updates made to our audio/visual system.)

❖ April

"Conspiracy Investigations", April 27-29, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL., in partnership with the Florida National Guard. Conspiracies involving the activities of complex drug organizations with numerous individuals and a variety of crimes are inherently difficult to investigate and successfully prosecute. The goal of this course is to familiarize the investigator with the basics of what it takes to conduct conspiracy investigations from start to finish and to ensure prosecution and conviction of conspirators. Registration for this class will be closing soon. Seating is limited. Please forward your registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

❖ May

“Courtroom Testimony”, May 6-7, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course will focus on training drug officers to articulate facts in a courtroom or deposition setting in a professional and accurate manner as a means to successful prosecution. Topics of the course will encompass documentation; pre-trial meetings, depositions, and preliminary hearings; types of court cases; types of examination; courtroom demeanor and attire; testifying; defense tactics in the courtroom; witness credibility; experience documentation, and a mock trial practical exercise using counterdrug scenarios. Registration for this class is still open. Seating is limited. Please forward your registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

❖ June

“Analytical Investigative Techniques-Overview”, June 8-10, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course is designed to teach very basic investigative analysis techniques using drug-related data. The classroom presentation will include instruction on techniques used in the investigative analysis of a narcotics case. By the completion of the course, you will understand the processes and techniques used by analysts for investigations. You will also be able to analyze and summarize case data in a clear, concise and graphical format. This course is designed for law enforcement personnel with NO analytical experience who wish to learn and understand basic investigative analytical techniques. Registration for this class is now open! This is the first time this class has been offered at NEHIDTA. Please forward your registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

“Highway Vehicle Stops & the Drug Trafficker”, June 17-19, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course will provide instruction to law enforcement officers on highway traffic stops of suspected drug couriers and users. It is the goal of this course to provide these techniques to lead to the safe discovery of illegal contraband and ultimately, a successful prosecution. This course will include practical exercises for interviewing techniques and vehicle searches on cars, small trucks and commercial tractor trailers. Registration is now open! This is a very popular class and seats fill up fast. Please forward your registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

“Supervising Counterdrug Operations”, June 22-24, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course is designed for law enforcement officers who are drug unit commanders or supervisors of drug investigation initiatives. The primary focus of this course is to provide the basic knowledge and skills necessary to develop an increased appreciation of managerial resources used in counterdrug operations and an understanding of how to select, train and lead officers conducting counterdrug missions. Task force organization and management, the restrictions upon task force operations, selection and training of personnel, and related risk assessment and mitigation are highlighted. Presentations are enhanced via several simulations, practical exercises, and an open forum that allows for interactions designed to expose real-life situations. Registration is now open! This is another very popular class and seats fill up fast. Please forward you registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

If you would like more detailed information for any class that has been previously released, please email me at ckahrman@nehidta.org.
